FASMOR COUNTY OFFICIAL PREM

C. C. POWNING. EDITOR AND PROPRIETOR THURSDAY MAY, 24, 1677

THE OLD STORY OVER AGAIN.

BRANCH When the white laboring people of the Pacific rise against the immigragration of the Chinese hordes, a noticeable lack in the arrivals is apperent, and the Six Companies stop it for a while. Let the feeling die BRANCH down a little and every China steamer comes loaded with hundreds of these pests. This has been the case over and over again, and is now being done. But a short time ago a great uprising was held by the BRANCH whites and the Mongolian was thoroughly slarmed, so much so that many returned hastily to the Flowery Kingdom. Now, however the scare his subsided and here they come again. The public mind is apt to rnn in streaks. By this we mean go wild oper some particular hobby, and then it will die out and the people care nothing for what a short time before they lashed themselves into a fever heat over. This periodi al anti-Chinese furore illustrates this. The cunning pig-tail knows this and advances or retreats as the times require. Everytime, however, he makes more advancement and gains a stronger footbold. This Chinese problem is a very grave one to our coast and we fear will not be answered until it is too late. The Eastern Congressman is slow to realize anything beyond what he sees on his coast. Our requirements are so different from those of the Eastern BRANCH "WHITE HOUSE States that on Eastern Congressman is about as capable of legislating for ns as a hog is to study astronomy.

PYRAMID MINING TITLES.

In all probabilities the Pyramid Mining District will be a good one In time those ledges will be of great value. Then a good well defined and carefully worded title will be a source of much comfort to the owners. If the boundary lines are carefully described and the names of the locators all signed, a great deal of litigation, trouble and expense can be avoided. For these reasons, then, we advise all who have locations there to look at the records and see for themselves that everything is so plainly put down that the shrowdest lawyer could not misconstrue it into any pacertain meaning. We do not wish to be understood as intimating that there is any wrong entries made in the Mining Records, but all know how easily it is to make a mistake in a long and complicated description On or About the 20th Instant. NEW LOT! of the dips, angles and variations of a claim, and one of these, however slight, may one day be a great annoyance. While the mines are now in a te of prospecting and there is no particular rush or excitement about them, the time to satisfy all locations is auspicious. As a means of safety and certainly we would advise one and all to look into this matter of title, for it will do no harm and may do much good. See for yourself.

THE BARRES OF NEVADA - All the great cities have had their baby shows and won world-wide renown. Aithough Eiko has never put her babies up for the criticism of the public, she will never take a back seat. There are more balnes, better looking babies, fatter babies, healthier babies and crosser babies in Elko than in any place of its dimensions in the West. Strange as it may seem there is not a freekled-faced baby in the place-at least, there was not, necording to the latest advices. If there is anything more than another that the maternal heart in Elko has just cause for glorification over it is the absence of freckled-faced babies .- Elko Post.

JAY GOULD lives right among the fashionables, but he never goes into BRANCH society. His name never appears on the list of officers at public meetings. He drives out, but he is seldom recognized, for his face is not a familiar cae. He is the power in Wall street, yes is rarely seen there, all his business being transacted by telegraph. BRANCH a glass of wine or smoke a cigar with thorough satisfaction. In appearance he is one of the pleasant rich axen to be seen in New York. There are few residences in New York more tistefully or more richly furnished than his. It is in the centre of the fashionable churches, but he is not a regular attendant of any of them.

JOSEPH T. GOODMAN, poet, capitalist, journalist and mine broker is BRANCH about to become a member of the old stock board. Joe ought to make a good broker. So the Stock Ruchange says.

Curlous Case.

About a week ago Geo. Winters, who has been engaged in rodening up north for some time, quarreled with another man, and struck him in the mouth. One of the man's teeth made an incision on Winter's finger. to which no attention was paid at the time. A few hours passed away when the finger began to swell, and Winters complained of being sick. He was tenderly cared for by his men, but the swelling increased, and communicated with his arm, until that became nearly as large as a man's body. Last Saturday night his men thought he would die, and brought him to his home in Washoe Valley, Dr. White, of Carson, was called in. He lanced the arm, and took away from it a quart of blood, but no relief was experienced. And by this time Winters may be dead, though when our informant left a physician from Virginia had been aummoned, with the hope that there was still a chance.

The examination in mathematics, conducted by Miss Chinn, reflected great credit upon her class, the examples and explanations being performed and answered with rapidity. Miss Alice Higgins, Lou Williams, excelled.

Next Miss Estill favored the audience with a song,

The primary class then gave a potical recitation (Baby Bye). The little ones did remarkably well.

Miss Florence Pasmore next read an essay-"Vacation Studies." It was well written, and read in an excelleut manner.

The second class in grammar was examined by Mrs. Graham. The they had received no particular inwere readily replied to.

"Drift my Bark" by Miss Grace Dowdell and Miss Estell, was very sweetly sung.

The "Songs of Seven," a poetical recitation, by Katie Kinkead, Gertie Fitzmeier, Emily Bonnifield, Nettie Peck, Lesh Fredrick, Alice Higgins and Addie Stowe, was one of the most interesting of all the exercises, and each participant was perfect.

The visitors were then escorted to the grantsium room to witness the calisthenic exercises, lasting about fifteen minutes.

After this the dining room was reached where a lincheou was partaken of.
